CAPTIVA VERDE COMMENCES DAILY PLANTING IN IMPERIAL VALLEY

CALGARY, ALBERTA – October 26, 2015 Captiva Verde Industries Ltd. (“Captiva Verde” or the “Company”) announces that further to its news release of September 28, 2015, large-scale USDA certified organic vegetable planting is well underway in Imperial Valley, California.

Imperial Valley is famous for being the single largest producer of winter vegetables in the entire United States; and is endowed with abundant supplies of water derived from priority water rights from the Colorado River system. Captiva started planting Imperial on October 7th, and will total 902 acres in Imperial in this phase I program. Production continues daily from our Arizona operations and on both October 22nd and 23rd, Captiva produced over 130,000 pounds per day. Production harvesting and sales continue under excellent and ideal growing conditions.

The first published financial results for the first full period of commercial sales will be reported in the Company’s audited 4th quarter financial statements for the period ending December 31, 2015.
